A Weekend of Fine Wine and Fabulous Food at Fingals November 11th and 12th

“There is no love sincerer than the love of food”

George Bernard Shaw

RICHARD AND SHEILA

would like you to join them at Fingals for a gastronomic wine and food weekend. As the nights draw in and the grapes are picked and pressed why not come and enjoy and appreciate the fruits of their endeavors.

RAJ SONI OF R.S. WINES IN BRISTOL

will be presenting a range of champagnes from the prestigious house of Louis Roederer together with different Port styles from their wholly owned historic Douro Valley producer, Ramos Pinto. We will also be joined by the winegrower and proprietor Gian Paolo Paglia of the dynamic Poggio Argentiera in the Maremma region of Southern Tuscany for a talk and a taste of six different wines from his estate.

CHRIS WICKS OF BELL'S DINER (ONE OF OUR TOP 100 RESTAURANTS) & BERWICK LODGE IN BRISTOL

will be preparing a sumptuous seafood dinner on Friday night followed by cheeses from our local dairy/vineyard, Sharpham. On Saturday we will be shown round this award winning estate, a mere 5 miles away on the Dart river. In the evening we will be treated to a traditional Tuscan feast prepared by Chris with a wine tasting of Gian Paulo's fantastic wines to complement the meal. He and Raj will share some of their abundant knowledge over dinner.

Fingals- the place that puts an F on UNinteresting weekends

Richard and Sheila - too casual for their own goat!

"In vino veritas"

The complete package for two including both nights food, wine, bed and breakfast, Fingals home hospitality and local wine tour/tasting is £520 - £580 depending on room
